Junior College Grads Entertained At Dinner

The sixth annual banquet and dance given by freshmen of Palm Beach Junior College in honor of the graduates was held Friday night at the Hotel George Washington.

John Johnson was toastmaster and the arrangements committee included Betty Adams, David Baldwin, Dick Stack, Joy Shepherd, Ed Ehinger and Miss Frances Howell, sponsor.

"Time" was the theme of the banquet program and decorations. A large electric clock centered the speakers' table and the smaller tables were centered with miniature scenes, representing the four seasons.

Tommy Crabtree gave a farewell toast to sophomores and Charles Donnell, president of the student body, gave the response in rhyme. Others, who spoke briefly, included John I. Leonard, college president, Carl A. Widell, chairman of the board of public instruction, Howell L. Watkins, dean, Elbert E. Bishop, registrar, Miss Rachel Crozier, college sponsor, Miss Mary Sue Albertson, sophomore sponsor, Miss Frances Howell, freshman sponsor, Miss Charlie Vosberg, Co-Ed sponsor, and Miss Edna Wilson, college secretary. The sponsors were presented with corsages by John Johnson in behalf of the groups they sponsored.

Others seated at the speakers' table were Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Widell, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Bishop.

The Tropical Knights played for dancing after the banquet, the college students being joined by their "dates."

WEBSTER SPRINGS, W. Va., Nov. 2. (P) — Willard Tharp, 22-year-old mountaineer, counted himself a "lucky" man today, with a 64-year-old bride, a new job and lot of foster grandchildren older than himself.

He was married Monday to Mrs. Emma Garvin, a widow. The wedding came about, Tharp said, "because we are in love and have been for past six months." He added:

"I have 41 grandchildren and seven children already, my youngest step-child being 30 years old and the oldest 42. I was married on Monday and received a WPA work order the following day. Don't you think I was lucky?"

Junior College Honoring Alumni

Graduates of Palm Beach Junior College will be entertained by the student body at a homecoming formal dance at the Norton Galleries on Dec. 23, honor guests to be graduates who are now serving in the armed forces.

Outstanding feature of the evening will be the unveiling of a service flag, on the blue field of which is a white star for each graduate in the service.

The committee in charge is requesting families of all graduates in the service to notify the Junior College of this fact, if they have not previously been contacted.

Dick Stack, president of the student body, and Jack S. ... chairman of the dance committee, are arranging a floor show. Music for dancing will be furnished by the Tropical Knights.
